Race Riot in New York. 'S n Juan Hill," the district bounded by Amsterdam and West End avenues and Sixty-first and Sixty-third avenues and Sixty-first and Sixty-third streets, New York, so-called because of its notoriety as a battle ground, was a scene last night of a ferious race riot which required 250 policemen to quelt after many shots had been fired and several persons had been seriously injured. The trouble began shortly after 9 o'clock, when a policeman arrested Ed-ward Connelly for attacking Henry Williams, a negro, and was pursued to the police station, with his prisoner by a mob of Connelly's friends, hurling showers of stones and other missiles. When the station houses reserves turned out the whole neighborhood was in an uproar, and blacks engaged in desperate struggles in the streets. Torrents of missiles were hurled from roofs and win-

Within ten minutes not less than s thousand men, boys, and women, black and white, were engaged in furious combat. The small party of police was powerless, and re-enforcements were summoned. On their arrival a cordon was drawn around the whole district and strong patrols made repeated charges down the streets in a vain effort to re-store order. They succeeded in taking a few prisoners, and were forced to retreat, fighting every inch of the way, and pursued to the station house by a howling mob.

Part of Backbone Removed-

Miss Lydia Entsminger, who was shot by Grover Ford on the night of June 26, is yet alive, at Lexington but with very little chance of recovery. Dr. H. Stewart MacLean and Dr. Carroll M. Baggarly, of Richmond, and Dr. Clarence Obenschain, the resident physician, per formed an operation with the hope of saving her life. Miss Helen Orchard, a graduate nurse of the Virginia Hospipal, Richmond, assisted. A part of two of the verbrae was removed. The spinal chord was found to be crushed by one of the bones which had been forced upon it by the bullet. Miss Entsminger railied after the operation, but since that time her condition grows less hopeful each day.
